

THE TRAIL MARKER

Being a Bulletin Issued Now and Then by the

New York Chapter - Adirondack Mountain Club, Inc.

Chapter Chairman's Headquarters: 347 Prospect Ave., Hackensack, N.J.

Volume II

December 3, 1925.

Number 2

Well, we have the name! Will Miss Ethel Fleming please step up and claim the free weekend at Camp Blue Bird.

Changes in Previously Published Date

The informal dinner-dance scheduled for Tuesday Dec. 8th, at the Strand Roof is still "on", but at a different place on account of the activities of Mr. Buckner, Meet instead at the MOULIN ROUGE on Broadway at 47th Street at 6:30 p.m. in order to procure tables. Show followed by dancing. Dinner $1.50, Chinese and American Food.

Another Change

Mr. Greenwald wishes to state that the train time for his walk scheduled for Dec. 20th is 9:30 a.m. instead of 7:30 as announced. No need to get up in the dark on the next-to-the-shortest day in the year for an easy trip.

The various committees are hard at work on the preparation of dates for the Winter Schedule. And let those to whom letters have been addressed in regard to dates be reminded that this work is greatly facilitated if a prompt reply is made. Please let's cooperate.

On account of recent occurrences the Council wishes to announce that the rule obliging a member to accompany his, or her, guest is still in force. A person bearing a letter of introduction from a member of the Council is recognized as an exception to this ruling: regular applicants for members may also come out without being accompanied by the members proposing them. Leaders please note when taking the roll.

The following persons have recently completed membership requirements and have been elected members of the Chapter by the Council.

Miss Ila M. Burdick
480 Lexington Ave., New York
Miss Hedwig Szatkowski
687 E. 138th St., New York
Mr. N. W. Callmer
2112 Dorchester Rd., B'klyn.
Mr. John C. Draper,
280 Broadway, New York.(The Sun)

Mr. Frank Hardy
463 West St., New York.
Mr. Paul G.J. Lauffer
Furnald Hall, Columbia U.
Miss Bess V. Sullivan
52 E. 97th St., New York.
Mr. Robert S. Anderson
2940 Broadway, New York.

SPECIAL ADIRONDACK MOUNTAIN CLUB DINNER

For those members of the Club who could not attend the Annual Dinner and Meeting of the Club at Albany on January 16, 1926, a special dinner has been arranged at

THE TOWN HALL CLUB

123 West 43rd Street, New York City

The date has been changed from Thursday, Feb. 25th to

Monday, March 1, 1926.

A special programme has been arranged. Mr. Russel M.L. Carson, of Glens Falls, N.Y. has consented to be present on that occasion to tell of some of his interesting researches into Adirondack mountain history that he has been pursuing for the last few years. It is the intention of the Club to publish this history in book form in the coming year. Mr. Frank S. Hackett, President of the Club will also speak. Your Chapter Chairman will give an illustrated talk on the heroic struggle of last June in bringing in the supplies to Johns Brook Lodge. Dancing will follow. Tickets will be $3.00 per person, and may be obtained from Mrs. Mabel H. Cozine, 416 Ft. Washington Ave., New York, N.Y.

SAVE THAT DATE FOR A REAL ADIRONDACK NIGHT !

OTHER CHANGES IN PUBLISHED DATA

Sunday, Feb. 28. Change in train time.

Should readLv. Grand Central 8:35 a.m; ar. Stamford 9:27 a.m.

Sunday, March 7. Change in destination.

Should readLv. Grand Central 7:54 a.m.; ar. MANITOU, N.Y. 9:35

Leader Walter Shannon will meet party at Bear Mt. Bridge with a party from Camp Blue Bird.

DUES COLLECTIONS

About sixty per cent of the Chapter membership have remitted 1926 dues. With this issue of THE TRAIL MARKER, the delinquents will be reminded of their obligation. The work of the Chapter offices would be greatly facilitated by a prompt response to this second call.

As a receipt for dues each member receives a membership card and a YEAR BOOK, which contains some useful information about the Chapter including a complete list of members with addresses.